Participation in adventurous activities entails some risk of injury. All staff employed by the company are trained and appropriately qualified to run activity sessions and will at all times proceed in a manor to limit the risk of injury. However, by attending the centre customers accept that accidents and injuries can happen.

All clients are required to follow safety guidance and work in partnership with the instructor in minimising the inherent risk. Any member of a group that disrupts a session and endangers themselves or others will be asked to leave the activity. With regard to minors a responsible member of your party may be asked to supervise the individual and/ or remove them from the session.

Personal property brought to the centre is the responsibility of the individual. Llain accepts no responsibility for loss or damage whilst on site. Any clothing or other property that is left at the centre will only be returned if postage costs are reimbursed.

Alterations and amendments by Llain Activity Centre: We reserve the right to vary any course where this becomes necessary due to circumstances beyond our control. In the unlikely event of cancellation by Llain Activity Centre, an alternative will be offered or payment will be refunded.

Liability: No liability is assumed for injury, death, damage, accident, cancellation, delay, irregularity or inconvenience incurred by a person participating in a course at Llain Activity Centre. We decline all responsibility for loss or damage to property of any kind during a course. We do not accept any responsibility for losses or additional expenses to delays or changes in aircrafts, trains, coaches, or other services, sickness, weather, strikes, riots, wars, quarantine or other cause.

Insurance: Llain Activity Centre has a comprehensive public liability policy with an indemnity limit of £5 million

Obeying the Rules: We reserve the right to request a visitor to Llain to withdraw from the site if they do not obey the rules of the centre or if they create a nuisance. A refund will be at the centre's discretion
